This demand, after consulta-tion with Mr. Dingley of Maine, he with-drew, but it was immediately repeated by Mr. Tracy of New York. So the question was taken on the resolution, which reads as follows:

resolution, which reads as follows:
Resolved, That in the judgment of this houst he granting of subsidies and bounties by con gress, in money, public lands, bonds or by in don-ement, or by pledge of the public credit, to promote special private industries or enterprise of corporations, independent of the constitutions power of congress to make such grants, is unjusted in the spirit of our republican Institutions, as it directly tends to create an foster the wealth of favored classes at the expense of the whole people who bear the burdens of government, and manifestly furnished undue facilities for the enlargement of great private estates—a policy which a government of the people cannot justly or safely encourage by any form of favoritism in legislation. It was adopted, yeas 227, nays 41.

Resolved, That in view of the present condition of the treasury, and because efficient and honest government can only be assured by the frugal expenditure of the public money, while unnecessary, and lavish expenditures, under any and all conditions, leads inevitably to venal and corrupt methods in public affairs, no money ought to be appropriated by congress from the public treasury except such as is manifestly necessary to carry on the several departments frugally, efficiently and honestly administered. The resolution was agreed to, year, 16

Mr. F. B. Fmmons. The report of the death of Mr. E. B. Emmons of Hartford, published in various state papers, proves to be incorrect, as we learn from friends of Mr. Emmons. Yesterday's Winsted Herald says: "It was reported Wednesday all about town that Mr. F. B. Emmons of Hartford, well known here, was dead. This morn-ing Postmaster Cook states that he has, after an earnest effort, failed to verify the report. We sincerely hope the report of Mr. Emmons' death will not be substan-

Next week the thirteenth annual season in this city will open at the Hyperion. The initial lecture of the series, "Travels in Sunny Spain," will be given Monday evening next, and will be repeated on Wednesday evening. No lectare in Mr. Stoddard's extensive repertoire has a more fruitful subject than this which treats of the land once so glorified by the Moor and later the home of the Spaniard. The remaining lectures are of no less interest and value.
